STATEMENT BY THE MEDITERRANEAN CITIZENS' ASSEMBLY (MCAF) ON THE TERRORIST ATTACKS IN ISTANBUL, BERLIN AND BAGHDAD

Terrorist attacks occurred in the New Year's Eve in Istanbul, on 19th December 2016 in Berlin, and in Baghdad on 2d January, 2017.

The MCAF shows:

1. his absolute condemnation to these bloody attacks that have caused so much pain and death,
2. his firm solidarity with all the victims and their families,
3. his absolute rejection to these forms of action and to the escalation of violence and death that is taking place in the Mediterranean region and its surroundings.

The values of freedom, equality, fraternity and justice must overcome the dark times that the peoples of the Mediterranean region are suffering.

The MCA Foundation is calling all public institutions to design the necessary policies to combat the root causes of extremism, violence and inequalities in the Mediterranean region.
